BOTH GAY AND SAD.

Were the Christmas Exercises Held in the Various City Churches Yesterday.

GORGEOUS DECORATIONS SEEN

Happy-Sunday School Pupils Are Made Happier by Santa Claus' Joyous Visits.

Santa Claus is certainly ubiquitous. So is his wife.

This very amiable pair appeared in a half dozen different places Thursday night at the same hour and in different parlors.

Santa denied his wife participation in the festivities of several of the city churches, but the blithesome little folk did not mourn over her absence. Their hearts were as light, their laughter was as gay and their joy was as unconfined as though Mrs. Santa was present.

The exercises everywhere were attended by large audiences. Midgits under three years of age appeared before crowded pews and lisped touching little Christmas stories, sang songs and were cheered with all the energy of an animated heart. It was a gladdening picture. The beaming countenances of the children were interesting, and the restless attitudes with which they awaited the advent of Santa Claus was observed with great delight.

Jacob's Ladder.

A ladder reaching from the rostrum to a golden gate in the dome of the alcove where the pipe organ rests, greeted the visitors at the Methodist church. There was the legendary eastern star which the shepherds saw when the babe of Bethlehem came was born, and pretty trappings of evergreen decorated the walls. "Glory to God on the Highest. Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men," was printed in flaming letters across the galleries. The ladder was intended to represent the one that Jacob saw in his dream, reaching from earth to heaven, upon which were angels ascending and descending. The story of Jacob's dream was related by Rev. French.

Little Gladys Morrow, so small that she had to be lifted to the platform, delighted the audience with a recitation. She smilingly responded to an encore. Roy Bateman, Laura Earl, Grace Anderson, Hazel Colgrove and Georgiana Morrow repeated pretty poems. A vocal quartet by S. W. Barker, Roy Ayers, and the Misses Lillian Williams and Ida Edgumbe closed the literary program.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, represented by Claud Ayers and Miss Francis Hull, were then introduced and the distribution of presents to the Sunday School pupils began.

Fairies and Brownies.

Brownies and sweet-faced fairies, fitting hither and thither in the audience, delivering parcels to those designated by the irrepressible Santa Claus as entitled to remembrance, was the scene unfolded at the Universal church to those who entered after 8 o'clock.

A cantata in three parts, introducing brownies, fairies and Santa Claus, comprised the exercises. In the first part the captain of the brownies appeared and read a cablegram from Santa Claus declaring that the gloomy times had saved him to seek the magic aid of the queen of the fairies to enable him to fill the empty stockings. He feared the queen had failed him and he summoned the captain of the brownies and his band to come to his dominion.

The second part revealed the brownies' cave and the brownies at work laying bricks, the brick being boxes containing candy. The brownies were surprised at their work by the entrance of the fairy queen and her throng. The captain of the brownies unfolded the predicament of Santa Claus to the queen who declared that Santa must not be dismayed, and by her magic hand she converted the common brick into boxes of candy which, in the third part, were carried to Santa Claus in his cave on hods.

Beautiful Decorations.

The first part of the program was participated in by the children. It was opened by a pipe organ solo by Fred Nully, which was followed by an anthem by the choir under the direction of Dr. Kneeland. Dr. Votey's little daughter, aged two years, repeated the one hundredth psalm, after which Miss Simon invoked the divine blessing. Miss Hise's class of little girls sang a song. The wreath drill by eight little girls, led by Miss Rapp and Lulu Van Dusen was very pretty and created loud applause.

When it came time for Santa Claus to put in his appearance the side of the house was pulled open and a pretty interior home scene was disclosed. Santa Claus, in his place and the stockings hanging up waiting to be filled by Santa, who suddenly made his appearance down the chimney much to the amusement of everyone. The good old man was cleverly impersonated by John Prichard who was dressed in costume. The children were presented with candy, oranges and nuts, while Rev. George B. Simons received a study chair and the Sunday school was presented with a miniature church made in tin and a perfect fac simile of the Baptist church with a place in the chimney to receive birthday offerings. This clever piece of work was made by C. W. Van Dusen who also deserves the credit for the decorations.

His Bold Head Saved Him.

The Christmas cantata given at the Congregational church Thursday night was witnessed by a large crowd of people and many words of praise and commendation were heard on every side for the leaders, Chorister A. P. Cady and Miss Lina Forton, who have been untiring in their efforts to make this a great success.

A large number of delegates, representing different nations, met for a convention in Santa Land but on reaching a certain point in their route they could find no one who could direct them with his usual generosity and kindly consented to take them all there in his Union sleigh. The convention was very enjoyable and Mrs. Cady, as mistress, with her phantasies won fresh laurels with her lullaby song, and Harry Hinkley captured the audience with the Chinaman song. Much merriment was created by the funny costumes and dialects of the actors.

A very unlooked for interruption occurred between the second and third acts. Just as the organist, A. W. Nelson, was about to begin an organ solo the Indian, Frank Welton, rushed out from behind the scenes with a war whoop and was about to add another scalp to the already large number that dangled from his belt after a moment's contemplation he turned away in great disappointment and quietly returned to his home.

In the last scene 16 little boys and girls dressed as cupids and fairies under the direction of Miss Lina Forton gave a very pretty exhibition.

The entertainment so greatly pleased the people that a request for its repetition has been made and in case it is decided to repeat it the date will be announced later.

At the Catholic Church

The Catholic church, ever mindful of the sacred festival of Christmas celebrated the day wherever her faithful children are assembled, with all the pomp and magnificence of her ritual. She puts on her brightest array, bestows her altars with increased splendor, burns her brightest lights and chants her glorious anthems to the praise and glory of the Messiah. Here, in the city, the faithful of the church were not negligent of their duty and devotion to the solemn day. The altars of the church were decorated with evergreens, and lighted up with a forest of tapers presented an imposing appearance. In front of the main altar, in semicircular form, in large letters, appeared the words, "Gloria in excelsis Deo," surrounded with many lights. Movements were celebrated from early morning, all of which were attended by a large and devout congregation. At half past ten solemn high mass was celebrated by the reverend pastor, the choir rendering the responses with their usual ability. The singing of the "Venite Adoremus" was rendered in a manner hardly to be excelled in any of the large city churches and the choir is to be congratulated on the careful and able rendition of the program selected for the day.

Rev. Father Cooney, of Notre Dame, preached an eloquent sermon, pointing out the duties of the Christian in the worthy celebration of the day and his sermon was listened to with great attention. The reverend gentleman is a forcible and eloquent pulpit orator and holds his audience from beginning to end by his brilliant arguments and striking points of illustration.

The forty hours' adoration begins on tomorrow.

Fairies Cheer the Walls

A very beautiful and touching Christmas entertainment was given last evening by the children of the Christian church at Conkey's hall and was attended by over 700 people. Sixty children faithfully took part in the program. They had been drilled for six weeks by Mrs. J. H. Bicknell and Mrs. J. H. Bicknell. The stage was divided into two parts. On one side were the "busy bees," Sunday school children making Christmas presents for the poor and on the other side Santa Claus and his fairies dressed in white with spotless wings.

Little Miss Fannie Altmendinger appeared in her bare feet and night dress and with a lighted candle in one hand and a rag doll in her arms was searching through the dark house looking for Santa Claus.

Two street waifs—Mabel Byers and Dick Whelan—appeared in rags and with looks of distress. They had an empty basket and were looking for Santa Claus. They could not find him and in despair they sang, "Nobody cares if we hunger and die." They were to be seen in many eyes throughout the audience as the little boy lay down to die. His companion took off her scanty shawl and laid it tenderly over the little boy and then she too laid down to sleep expecting never to wake again. Will the ragged children were sleeping Santa Claus came and his fairies filled the basket with clothing and all the things that makes glad the hearts of children at Christmas time. When they awoke this scene was very pathetic. Another special feature was the appearance of three colored boothlacks, Reuben Durkee, Irvin Stark and Cecil Deith.

Parents Entertained.

The Misses Forton, who are conducting a very successful kindergarten on Pavone street, received the parents of their pupils Wednesday forenoon between 9 and 12 o'clock. Dainty cups of cocoa and wafers were served. A Christmas tree, decorated with the work of the pupils, was an interesting attraction. The pupils were also served with sweetmeats. The event marked the closing of the school for this year. It will reopen the first Monday in January. The training received by children at this newly founded institution is highly beneficial and the school is fast acquiring a reputation.

HE KILLED HIS SON

Sad Accident in the Vandever Family at Coloma Yesterday.

FATHER AND SON OUT HUNTING

The Father's Firearm Accidentally Discharged, Producing Fatal Injuries to the Son.

COLOMA, Dec. 26.—Christmas day, 1896, will be remembered as the saddest day in the history of the Vandever family who live north of this village. Yesterday forenoon Tracy, the 17-year-old son of John Vandever, was shot by his father and died from the effects of his injuries before Christmas was passed.

In the morning father and son left home to hunt during the forenoon. About 9 o'clock the son, while bending over to put a ferret in a hollow log, received in his back the contents of a gun accidentally discharged while in the father's hands.

Physicians were summoned immediately from Coloma and Watervliet, and everything was done for the sufferer which medical science could devise, but the wounds proved fatal. It was ascertained that the gun was entered one of the kidneys.

Sorrow over the sad event is very general. John Vandever served this township on the county board of supervisors for a number of years, and is highly respected. In his great grief he has the sincere sympathy of hundreds of friends.

The funeral services will be held next Sunday forenoon.

ABOUT THE COUNTY.

East Chaire

EAU CLAIRE, Dec. 26.—Christmas was appropriately celebrated by the churches of this place. The Methodist church had a Christmas house and the Sunday school presented the cantata of "Mother Goose" and the audience was delighted. The Christian church was beautifully decorated and departed from the usual custom somewhat by building a fine representation of a settler's log cabin in a winter scene. The United Brethren had the usual and always pleasing Christmas tree. Several families had trees in their own homes.

Robert Farmer, one of the leading citizens of this place spent a merrier Christmas than usual this year. This is accounted for by the fact that he was married the day before to Miss Allie Shaw of Hinchman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ward, of Watervliet, and W. W. Ward, of Watervliet, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dine, of South Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. J. McKinnin, of Elkhart. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Davis entertained Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perry of Benton Harbor.

The friends of Rev. C. P. Birdsey presented him with a beautiful office chair as a Christmas gift.

Reds Are Ahead.

The Y. M. C. A. membership contest is growing more interesting as the time for its conclusion approaches. The Blues have been in the lead, but the Reds' efforts have witnessed a steady gain until they now lead their opponents by a margin of one. The contest now stands 17 to 12. It will close next Thursday night at 12 o'clock.

A BAD CUT.

A Swede Named John Bronque Received One.

John Bronque, a Swede who has been working on the St. Joseph Valley road but who has lately been employed in the brick yard of George Peterson, got into bad company Christmas eve and as a result will be laid up for some time.

He in company with several Swedes who had been celebrating the event of Christmas by indulging too freely in poor whiskey, got in a dispute which ended by Mr. Bronque receiving a cut in the back of his head by a knife in the hands of one of his companions.

The light occurred near the corner of Territorial and Water streets and Mr. Bronque walked a short distance when he was seen by William Hix who assisted him to William Cone's lodging house where Dr. Votey sewed up the gaping wound, it requiring twelve stitches.

Another Charge

J. M. Ball arrived this morning from Chicago and at once made complaint against Or Stanley and Frank Davenport, charging them with burglarizing his residence on the Lake Shore road. There are two charges now pending against the young men. They were previously held on the charge of the larceny of a watch and revolver from Engineer Taylor of the St. Joseph paper mill.

CHRISTMAS AT THE MAJOR'S.

President-Elect Bliss with His Mother—Many Presents Received.

Canton, O., Dec. 25.—Major McKinley enjoyed a sleigh ride Thursday morning, and with Mrs. McKinley sharing the pleasure enjoying nearly two hours in the crisp, bracing atmosphere. Mrs. McKinley was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. M. C. Barber, and the latter in turn gave her place in the sleigh to others. Both the president-elect and his wife feel greatly improved by their recent visit to Chicago and are in excellent spirits.

A number of Christmas presents have arrived for Major and Mrs. McKinley from relatives and friends in different parts of the country, books forming a prominent part of these holiday mementoes. Letters and telegrams innumerable were received during the day containing wishes of a merry Christmas to the president-elect and his wife. Among the distinguished visitors were Colonel Fred D. Grant and family, who reached the city from New York en route to Chicago, where they go to pass the Christmas with friends.

Hon. A. T. Winbury, of Louisiana, was also a caller Thursday morning. Winbury is prominent in the Louisiana political field, but says he is here to make only a social call on the president-elect. He left for Washington at 2:05 Thursday afternoon.

APPEAR SURPRISED.

Law and Order Women Mean to Continue the Prosecution of Saloonists.

DAZZED BY CONTRARY REPORTS.

Claim They Did Not Authorize the Withdrawal of the Complaints.

THE EVENING NEWS has received the following letter which explains itself.

EDITOR EVENING NEWS:—Please publish the following: "The St. Joseph law and order league has decided to withdraw its charges—twenty-three of them—against liquor dealers in that place. Berrien Springs, Mich."

Last week twenty-three cases which had been brought against liquor dealers had to be dropped for lack of evidence. Detroit Free Press.

On seeing the above, we think it calls upon us to give a true and correct statement of these cases. Last summer nine saloon keepers were arrested in St. Joseph by the law and order league for violating the Sunday closing liquor law. They all appeared in the justice's court, waived examination, were bound over to the October court, under bonds of $100 each. It was stated at the beginning of this court that those cases were to be tried this term.

The complaining witnesses have waited anxiously and expected to be notified, and was ready to appear any day for the hearing of these cases, now we see in the paper (and that is all we know about it as we have not heard a word from the court) that the league had decided to withdraw its charges against the liquor dealers in that place.

We are very much surprised at these proceedings, as we never will withdraw our charges against them, and if there is any law in the state of Michigan, (and we believe there is) that we can bring these cases into court again, we will do it, for we have positive proof they are guilty of the charges.

Plagiarized His Winning Effort.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Dec. 25.—Walush college circles are astounded over the announcement that Charles M. Rauch, the college representative in last week's oratorical contest, had plagiarized the oration he delivered at the primary contest last week. In the audience sat Professor McLain, who recognized in the splendid oration on the Armenian question the greater portion of a sermon recently delivered by Dr. Lyman Abbott and published in last week's Outlook. Rauch confirmed his belief that Professor confronted Rauch, who at once confessed. The high honor is taken from Rauch, and O. M. Duncan, who took second, will represent Walush.

GROCERIES

"PACIFICOS" TO DIE.

Reports Received To That Effect

From Key West, Florida, and Havana.

WORK OF BUTCHERY BEGINS.

Some Remarks by a Spanish General on the Stories Told in the United States.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Telegrams from

Key West via Cincinnati say that passengers arriving from Havana tell the story that all Havana is waiting for reports from Weyler and commenting upon his actions so far. He is reported to have stated that he intended to make a desert of the Pinar del Rio section to starve General Rivera out. According to rumors he has begun strongly on this.

His guerrilla bands have orders to carry off or destroy all cattle or provisions of any kind, and to lay waste the entire country, burning cane fields, houses, barns, etc. This they are beginning to do. The statement is also made that the orders are to shoot all

"pacificos" and that the bloody work has been begun. The stories add that General Rivera, who is in command of the army of Maceo, has sent a formal warning to Weyler, notifying the Spanish captain general that if he persists in his threats to kill pacificos found in the country the Cubans will make reprisals on all Spaniards whom they may capture.

Cuban Victories Over the Spaniards.

General Weyler is affecting to disregard the warning. Those near him, however, say that he will not dare to carry out his ideas as ruthlessly as he intended. His guerrillas still have full authority to capture or kill pacificos in the country and to force their families into the garrisoned towns. As the troops in such places have little extra food and the residents none to spare, this is a great hardship on the poor country folk. Hundreds will soon be starving. General Rivera is moving out of his intrenchments. All indications point to an important engagement soon. A battle has been fought in Santa Clara province between guerrilla bands. The Cubans forced the Spanish to retreat into Remedios with heavy loss. Here, across the bay from Havana, was attacked again Thursday night almost under the guns of the fortress. Several houses were burned and a running fight was maintained for two hours.

What Correspondent Bowen Says.

A dispatch from New York gives the substance of a special to The World from Dr. Williams. Bowen, a staff correspondent of that paper, The Spanish authorities have him permission to travel through Pinar del Rio. He found few signs of civil war except about the garrisoned towns. Tobacco was being cultivated in many places, except that the planting was later than common, and the inhabitants seemed to be following their ordinary avocations. General Malguito, who is in command of the district about Pinar del Rio city, replied bitterly to the American press attacks on him for cruelty. Referring to the "pacificos" he said there were two kinds of these—one genuine and the other spurious.

Distances Between "Pacificos."

The spurious kind carried on a guerrilla warfare when the opportunity offered to do so safely and then when hard pressed buried its arms and became very peaceful. General Malguito said that these men should be treated as the Germans treated similar French rebels during the Franco-German war—shot on sight. Malguito had not heard any criticism of the German commanders for doing this.

Referring to the proposed collecting of the loyal people in the towns and the desolation of the country occupied by the rebels General Malguito recalled to me that there is nothing in the fact that the Spanish are inclined to accept no reports from Cuba that are not official, as a basis of action.

"I think the incoming administration should have the privilege of deciding what course to take in respect to the foreign policy, and that the new president should not be inaugurated with a war upon his hands with an important foreign power, caused by the action of the out-going congress."

"Do you believe that Cuba will benefit by becoming an independent government?"

"I do not," General Draper replied. "I am not confident that the new government would maintain civil order, and the security of person and property under equal laws for all citizens of the island and for foreign visitors and residents any more effectively than the Spanish government. I believe that if I were to take my wife and family to the island of Cuba they would be safer under Spanish rule, had as it is said be, than under such rule as would be instituted if the insurgents should succeed and our government should take possession of the island.

"The alternative for securing order government, then, you think is between Spanish rule and American?"

"Exactly," was the reply. "The United States ought to deliberate more carefully, however, before themselves taking possession of the island. American control would involve a great many obligations, under a variety of heads.

One of the objections of the insurgents to Spanish rule lies in the fact that the suffrage is limited to some 53,000 voters out of perhaps 350,000 adult male

They apparently desire universal suffrage. Presumably they would not renounce this desire if the island became a part of the United States. They would then bring a new element of corruption into the Union if Cuba became a state, and they would be in a constant state of irritation if the island were kept in a territorial condition."

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT A FAKE.

Three Friends Shows No Sign of Having

Been in a Fight.

Cincinnati, Dec. 26.—A special to The Commercial-Tribune from Key West says: Much comment was made yesterday in Havana over the report circulated from New York that the fil-lustering steamer Three Friends had been fired on by Spanish cruisers and that the steamer had disabled a Spanish gunboat. This report is positively denied in official circles, who affirm that nothing of the kind occurred, but that the story is made from whole cloth. It is admitted that the steamer landed on the south side of the island, but it is alleged that there was no fighting. It is furthermore stated that only a part of the cargo was secured by Gomez, the Spanish coast guards having captured a good portion.

The Three Friends is here, lying under the guns of the Raleigh. Captain Lewis refuses to say anything about his trip, save that he had been after devils. As the story of a fight he professes ignorance. None of the crew can be induced to speak of the affair.

The vessel does not bear any marks of conflict, and the report is doubted here.

Havana advises are that Gomez's advance guard has captured the town of Las Vigas, in Santa Clara province, taking the entire town and all their stores. A battalion of fresh troops was sent to Matanzas yesterday morning from Havana to be sent to the front. Great exertions are being made to get a strong force to oppose General

Gomez, and three lines are being between them and crushed.

Very Important, if True.

Good blood means strong nerves, good

Said Santa Claus as he emptied his cutter on the sidewalk in front of our store last night. When asked the cause he said: "Why everybody in the twin cities will call here next week to buy their Christmas presents, so I will just leave everything here and let them get it." And so it goes, everybody comes here if they want anything in Dry Goods, for we keep the only line in town which suits everybody. HERE PROS East Main and

LOSE THEIR JOBS.

Over One Hundred of the Boston Street Car Strikers Are Bounced.

COMPANY PUTS ITS FOOT DOWN
And its Discharge of the Men May Cause Another Strike on the Street Car Lines.

Boston, Dec. 26.—The first official act of the West End management yesterday morning was to discharge 120 conductors and motormen of division 6 (Charlestown). President Young, of the conductors, motormen and drivers union, headed the list. More than 100 discharges were also made on division 3 (Lenox street line).

President Young says the strike is off as far as the supreme council of the union is concerned. He admits that some of the men having already disregarded the action of the conference committee may ignore the ultimatum of the supreme council and inaugurate another strike. It is generally thought among the conductors and motormen that the action of the supreme council means that the management have until next Monday to sign an agreement submitted by the men recognizing them as a union instead of individuals. If the company refuses to do this another strike may be ordered.

Talk of Selecting New Leaders.
The more radical of the men say that heretofore the supreme council and the conference committee have failed to represent the sentiments of the union. One of the men said that if the company refused to recognize its conductors and motormen as a union, and the present council did not order a strike, the resignation of the present members would be demanded and a new council representing the sentiments of the men would be installed. The conservative members, however, argue that a strike now would be the height of folly. In the event of a strike being ordered many of these men would refuse to go out. Yesterday and Thursday the recruiting office of the West End registered about 1,000 men who are supposed to be competent, besides receiving hundreds of applications by mail.

END OF THE CHRISTMAS STRIKE.
Leaders of the Union Finally Convince the Men of Their Error.

The speedy ending of the strike began to be anticipated Thursday afternoon when, in spite of the efforts of the union men, the employees of the South Boston lines refused to join in the movement, and until early in the evening these cars were almost the only ones to be seen on the streets. By 4 o'clock, however, one or two cars of the Grove Hall line were seen and later a few desultory trips were made on the other lines. Meanwhile the executive council of the union was trying to convince the inopportune strikers that the movement could not be expected to succeed when it had been begun in violation of the promise of the council to defer the strike until the directors of the road should have time to consider the agreement presented by the men.

At last the argument of the company prevailed, and although the decision to declare the strike off is not satisfactory to many of the employees, the subject has been presented to them in such a light that they can see no other way of maintaining the honor of their committee, or of their union. As soon as the news of the committee's action became known preparations were made to resume operations on all lines. At the usual hour the men began to report, and while some changes were made, owing necessarily to the general withdrawal of these cars, at 10 o'clock, there was little to indicate that anything unusual had occurred.

The action of the company in discharging so many men is in the line of its ultimatum issued Thursday that those who did not return to work at a certain hour would be considered as having quit the company's service. True to this the company engaged such of its old employees as it desired, but declined the services of those prominently identified with the strike.

CECIL RHODES NOT A "DEAD DUCK."

Gives His Views of the Proper Policy for British in Africa.

Fort Elizabeth, Cape Colony, Dec. 26.—At a banquet tendered to Cecil Rhodes here he made a speech in the course of which he declared that his public life was not ended, and that he would not give up his seat in parliament until he was turned out. He asserted that no savage country can remain a part of Africa. Cape Colony, he said, must be the dominant power south of Central Africa. His idea was to assimilate the tariffs and not the peoples. This, he said, could be done in the north. It was not a question of race, but of unity. He urged his hearers to cultivate a closer union with other South African communities. He stated that when he was negotiating with the late Charles Stewart Parnell, the latter had promised him that a clause should be inserted in the home rule bill which would permit representatives from the colonies to sit at Westminster.

Senator Voorhees' Secretary Dead.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Chester H. Faulkner, the private secretary of Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, who was knocked down Thursday night by a street car, died at Providence hospital yesterday afternoon. He never recovered from the shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg, which was a necessary result of the accident.

Weston on a Tramp Again.

New York, Dec. 26.—Edward Weston, the 56-year-old pedestrian, last night began a twenty-four hours' walk in an effort to equal his record of 112 miles. His track is built around the ice in a big skating rink. At 2 o'clock this morning, four hours after the start, Weston had covered twenty miles.

Vice President Goes to St. Louis.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Vice President and Mrs. Stevenson and their daughter left yesterday for St. Louis, where they will be present at the wedding of Miss Julia Scott, niece of Mrs. Stevenson, to Carl Freeman, of Baltimore, which will take place Monday evening in the city.

CHRISTMAS BLAZE

Causes a Panic and Entails a Loss of Half a Million Dollars.

New York, Dec. 26.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed two big buildings on East Thirty-third street, partially destroyed the New York Polytechnic hospital and compelled the removal of its patients, drove two score of families from their homes in adjoining buildings, and did $500,000 damage. The structures which were destroyed were a five-story building at 211 and 213 East Thirty-third street, used partly as an office building, and a big six-story building at 215 to 231 used as a factory building. The first and second floors of 211 and 213 were used as offices and displayed rooms for the Kaldenberg Manufacturing company, which occupied with its factory the basement and first and second floors of the factory building. The company manufactures pipes and smokers' articles. The third, fourth and fifth floors front of 211 and 213 were occupied as offices by the Sebastian Sommer Piano company and the Gibson Piano company, allied concerns which had their factory in the upper floors of the factory building. The rear part of the upper floors of 211 and 213 was occupied by the snuff factory of Adolph Pinner. It is believed that the fire started in the snuff factory.

Had to Move the Sick People.

A part of the top floor of the factory building was occupied by the New England Car Spring company. The fire in East Thirty-third street had been burning from 6 o'clock until 7 o'clock before any real alarm was felt in the Polytechnic, though the patients knew there was a fire in the neighborhood. Suddenly the roof of the hospital, which is on Thirty-fourth street, burst into flames. The physicians in charge once decided to remove the fifty-eight patients, and the Delaware hotel, nearby, was placed at the disposal of the Polytechnic officials. A squad of police men began the removal of the sick people, thirteen children being carried out without trouble. There was more trouble with the adult patients. Patients who should not have left their beds defied the nurses and tried to escape. Some of the patients will suffer from the change.

Panic in the Tenement House.

In the tenement house just west of the burning building lived twenty-four families. The mothers and fathers watched the firemen with indifference from their windows, while their children played with Christmas toys. Suddenly terror seized them as onlookers cried: "Run for your lives. The wall is going to fall on you." Mothers picked up their little ones and ran to the street. Others refused to leave. The police showed the men and women down the stairs and picked the children from the floors, carrying them out. Most of them were in their night clothes, and each one was clinging to a toy. The roof of the factory building fell within an hour after the fire was discovered. The wall to the west, which upon the tenement house, fell eastward, down on Schuller's hotel. The loss of half a million is well covered by insurance.

WIFE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Details of the Work of a Mercantile Who Used a Shotgun.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 26.—Ebbion Scott, a teamster, shot his wife in the left shoulder and left side of the neck with a shotgun, inflicting wounds which may result in her death, and later blew the top of his head off with the same gun. He was down-town during the afternoon and on his return he asked her to spend Christmas with his relatives in Eureka. She refused because she had purchased a Christmas tree and presents for their only son, and he threatened to kill her. All through the evening he quarreled with her and finally the quarrel became so violent that he ran out on the street in search of other victims, whom he found on the next corner. Just as the policeman entered the house Scott fired the shot which took effect in the left shoulder and left side of the neck of his wife. Scott ran out the rear door pursued by the policeman and soon escaped. He went directly to the river bank, where he shot himself, though his body was not discovered until 8 o'clock next morning. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of suicide.

Took Peter Just Twenty-Seven Seconds.

New York, Dec. 26.—It just took twenty-seven seconds' time for Peter Maher, the Irish pugilist, to again demonstrate his superiority in ring tactics and hard hitting qualities over Steve O'Donnell, the Australian boxer. In the arena of the Greater New York Athletic club at Coney Island, both men were in excellent condition and trained to the hour. During the round Maher knocked Steve down twice, the last time being a knockout.

Fatal Accident on a Trolley Line.

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 26.—Five persons were injured and one killed yesterday afternoon in East Allentown in a grade crossing accident. A passenger train on the Central railroad of New Jersey struck a trolley car. L. J. Ware, aged 49, the motorman, was instantly killed. The injured are George Grosser, trolley car conductor; Mr. and Mrs. John Brink; Gehman and Ed Werg. None of their injuries are serious.

Queen Lil Is at Boston.

BOTH GAY AND SAD.

Were the Christmas Exercises Held in the Various City Churches Yesterday.

GORGEOUS DECORATIONS SEEN

Happy Sunday School Pupils Are Made Happy by Santa Claus' Joyous Visits.

Santa Claus is certainly ubiquitous, as is his wife.

This very amiable pair appeared in a half dozen different places Thursday night at the same hour and in different routines.

Santa denied his wife participation in the festivities of several of the city churches, but the blithesome little folks did not mourn over her absence. Their hearts were as light, their laughter was as gay and their joy was as unconfined as though Mrs. Santa was present.

The exercises everywhere were attended by large audiences. Midgets under three years of age appeared before crowded pews and leaped touching little Christmas stories, sang songs and were cheered with all the energy of an animated heart. It was a gladdening picture. The beaming countenances of the children were interesting, and the restless attitudes with which they awaited the advent of Santa Claus was observed with great delight.

Jesus's Ladder.

A ladder reaching from the rostrum to a golden gate in the dome of the alcove where the pipe organ rests, greeted the visitors at the Methodist church. There was the legendary easter star which the shepherds saw when the babe of Bethlehem came born, and pretty trimmings of evergreen decorated the walls. "Glory to God on the Highest, Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men," was printed in flaming letters across the galleries. The ladder was intended to represent the one that Jacob saw in his dream, reaching from earth to heaven, upon which were angels ascending and descending. The story of Jacob's dream was related by Rev.
Fryer.

Little Gladys Morrow, so small that she had to be lifted to the platform, delighted the audience with a recitation.
She smilingly responded to an encore.
Roy Bateman, Laura Earl, Grace Anderson, Hazel Colgrove and Georgiana Morrow repeated pretty poems. A vocal quartet by S. W. Barker, Roy Ayers, and the Misses Lillian Williamson and Ida Edgemoor closed the literary program.

Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, represented by Claude Ayers and Miss Francis Hull, were then introduced and the distribution of presents to the Sunday School pupils began.

Fairies and Brownies.

Brownies and sweet-faced fairies, flitting hither and thither in the audience, delivering parcels to those distinguished by the bropresible Santa Claus as entitled to remembrance, was the scene unfolded at the Universalist church to those who entered after 8 o'clock.

A cantata in three parts, introducing brownies, fairies and Santa Claus, comprised the exercises. In the first part the captain of the brownies appeared and read a cablegram from Santa Claus declaring that the gloomy times had passed and that the night and the queen of the fairies to enable him to fill the empty stockings.

The second part revealed the brownies' cave and the brownies at work laying hold, the brick being boxes containing candy. The brownies were surprised at their work by the entrance of the fairy queen and her throng. The captain of the brownies unfolded the resolutions of Santa Claus to the queen who declared that Santa must not be dismayed, and by her magic hand she converted the common brick into boxes of candy which, in the third part, were carried to Santa Claus in his cave on hobs.

The choruses were beautiful and the story of the cantata was nicely presented. Fred A. Hobbs appeared as Santa Claus.

Beautiful Decorations.

The First Baptist church was not large enough to hold the crowd which assembled to witness the Christmas exercises of the church Thursday night.
The church was beautifully decorated with evergreen which hung in festoons and wreaths from the walls and chan-delliers. On the platform was a large Christmas tree and a house with a huge chimney and above was one mass of evergreen.

The first part of the program was participated in by the children. It was opened by a pipe organ solo by Fred Hull, which was followed by an anthem by the choir under the direction of Dr. Kneeland. Dr. Volney's little daughter, aged two years, repeated the one hundredth psalm, after which Rev. Simon invoked the divine blessing. Miss Bishce's class of little girls sang a song. The wreath drill by eight little girls, led by Miss Rapp and Lulu Van Dusen were very pretty and created loud applause.

When it came time for Santa

Claus to put in his appearance the side of the house was pulled open and a pretty interior home scene was presented, showing the first place and the loadings. Looking on waiting to be filled by Santa, who suddenly made his appearance down the chimney much to the amusement of everyone. The good old man was cleverly impersonated by Jetta Prieux who was dressed in distinctive. The children were presented with candy, oranges and nuts, while Rev. George B. Simons received a study chair and the Sunday school was presented with a miniature church made in tin and a perfect fac simile of the Baptist church with a place in the chancel to receive birthday offerings.
This clever piece of work was made by C. W. Van Dusen who also deserves the credit for the decorations.

The Santa Claus saved time.

The Christmas cantata given at the Congregational church Thursday night was witnessed by a large crowd of people and many words of praise and commendation were heard on every side for the leaders, chorister A. P. Cady and Miss Lila Fortson, who have been untiring in their efforts to make this a great success.

A large number of delegates, represented different nations, met for a convention in Santa Land but on reaching a certain point in their route they could find no one who could direct them when Uncle Sam came forward with his usual generosity and kindly consented to take them all there in his Union sleigh. The convention was very enjoyable and Mrs. Cole, as thim-my, with her pickaninies won fresh belleis with her lullaby song, and Harry Hinkley captured the audience with the Chinaman song. Much merriment was created by the funny costumes and dialogues of the actors.

A very unlooked for interruption occurred between the second and third acts, just as the chorister, A. W. Nelson, was about to begin an organ solo the Indian, Frank Walton, rushed out from behind the scenes with a war whoop and was about to add another scaly to the already large number that dangled from his belt but after an immense contumelious he turned away in great disappointment and quietly retired. Mr. Nelson is bald.

In the last scene 14 little boys and girls dressed as cupids and fairies under the direction of Miss Lila Fortson gave a very pretty exhibition.

The entertainment so greatly pleased the people that a request for its repetition has been made and in case it is decided to repeat it the date will be announced later.

At the Catholic Church

The Catholic church, ever mindful of the sacred festival of Christmas celebrates the day wherever her faithful children are assembled, with all the pomp and magnificence of her ritual.
She puts on her brightest array, bedocks her altars with increased splendor, burns her brightest lights and chants her glorious anthems to the praise and glory of the Messiah. Here, in the city, the faithful of the church were not negligent of their duty and devotion to the solemn day. The altars of the church were decorated with evergreens and lighted up with a forest of tapers presented an imposing appearance. In front of the main altar, in semicircular form, in large letters, appeared the words, "Gloria in excelsis Deo," surrounded with many lights.
Masses were celebrated from early morning all of which were attended by a large and devout congregation.
At half past ten solemn high mass was celebrated by the reverend pastor, the choir rendering the responses with their usual ability. The singing of the "Venite Adoramus," was rendered in a manner hardly to be excelled in any of the large city churches and the choir is to be congratulated on the careful and able rendition of the program selected for the day.

Rev. Father Conroy, of Notre Dame, preached an eloquent sermon, pointing out the duties of the Christian in the worthy celebration of the day and his discourse was listened to throughout with great attention. The reverend gentleman is a forcible and eloquent speaker and holds his audience from beginning to end by his brilliant arguments and striking points of illustration.

The forty hours' adoration begins on tomorrow.

Fairies Cheer the Walls

A very beautiful and touching Christmas entertainment was given last evening by the children of the Christian church at Conkey's hall and was attended by over 700 people. Sixty children faultlessly took part in the program. They had been drilled for six weeks by Mrs. J. H. Heknell and Miss L. L. Loomis. The stage was divided into two parts. On one side were the "busy bees," Sunday school children making Christmas presents for the poor and on the other side Santa Claus and his fairies dressed in white with spotless wings.

Little Miss Fannie Altmendinger appeared in her bare feet and night dress and with a lighted candle in one hand and a rag doll in her arm was searching through the dark house looking for Santa Claus.

Two street waifs—Mabel Byers and Dick Whelan—appeared in rags and with looks of distress. They had an empty basket and were looking for Santa Claus. They could not find him and in despair they sang, "Nobody cares if we hunger and die." Tears were to be seen in many eyes throughout the audience as the little boy lay down to die. His companion took off her scanty shawl and laid it tenderly over the little boy and then she too laid down to sleep expecting never to wake again. While the weeping children were sleeping Santa Claus came and his fairies filled the basket with clothing and all the things that makes glad the hearts of children at Christmas time. When they awoke the scene was very pathetic.

Another special feature was the appearance of three colored youthbells, Reuben Durkee, Irvin Stark and Cecil Beith.

Parents Entertained.

The Misses Fortson, who are conducting a very successful kindergarten on Pavone street, received the parents of their pupils Wednesday forenoon between 9 and 12 o'clock. Dainty cups of coffee and wafers were served. A Christmas tree, decorated with the work of the pupils, was an interesting attraction. The pupils were also served with sweetmeats. The event marked the closing of the school for this year.
It will reopen the first Monday in January. The training received by children at this newly founded institution is highly beneficial and the school is fast acquiring a reputation.

HE KILLED HIS SON

Sad Accident in the Vandever Family at Coloma Yesterday.

FATHER AND SON OUT HUNTING

The Father's Firearm Accidentally Discharged, Producing Fatal Injuries to the Son.

COLOMA, Dec. 25.—Christmas day, 1896, will be remembered as the saddest day in the history of the Vandever family who live north of this village.
Yesterday forenoon Tracy, the 15-year old son of John Vandever, was shot by his father and died from the effects of his injuries before Christmas was passed.

In the morning father and son left home to hunt during the forenoon.
About 9 o'clock the son, while bending over to put a ferret in a hollow log, received in his back the contents of a gun accidentally discharged while in the father's hands.

Physicians were summoned immediately from Coloma and Waterford, and everything was done for the sufferer which medical science could devise, but the wounds proved fatal. It was ascertained that the gun had entered one of the kidneys.

Sorrow over the sad event is very general. John Vandever served this township on the county board of supervisors for a number of years, and is highly respected. In his great grief he has the sincere sympathy of hundreds of friends.

The funeral services will be held next Sunday forenoon.

ABOUT THE COUNTRY.

Fun Claire

RAB CLAIRE, Dec. 25.—Christmas was appropriately celebrated by the churches of this place. The Methodist church had a Christmas house and the Sunday school presented the cantata of "Mother Goose" and the audience was delighted. The Christian church was beautifully decorated and departed from the usual custom somewhat by building a log cabin in a winter scene. The United Brethren had the usual and always pleasing Christmas evening. Several families had trees in their own homes.

Robert Farmer, one of the leading citizens of this place spent a merrier Christmas than usual this year. This is accounted for by the fact that he was married the day before to Miss Allie Shaw of Hutchinson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward entertained Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dunning, Edwards-burg and W. W. Warren, Dowsgrange, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Dune, South Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKim, Elkhart.
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Davis entertained Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Perry of Benton Harbor.

The friends of Rev. C. P. Birdsey presented him with a beautiful office chair as a Christmas gift.

Reds Are Ahead.

The Y. M. C. A. membership contest is growing more interesting as the time for its conclusion approaches.
The Blues have been in the lead, but the Reds' efforts have witnessed a steady gain until they now lead their opponents by a margin of one. The contest now stands 13 to 12. It will close next Thursday night at 12 o'clock.

A BAD CUT.

A Swede Named John Bronque Roceived One.

John Bronque, a Swede who has been working on the St. Joseph Valley road but who has lately been employed in the brick yard of George Peterson, got into bad company Christmas eve and as a result will be laid up for some time.

He in company with several Swedes who had been celebrating the event of Christmas by indulging too freely in poor whiskey, got in a dispute which ended by Mr. Bronque receiving a cut in the back of his neck by a knife in the hands of one of his companions.

The light occurred near the corner of Territorial and Water streets and Mr. Bronque walked a short distance when he was seen by William Fox who assisted him to William Cox's lodging house where Dr. Volney gazed up the gaping wound, it requiring twelve stitches.

Another Charge

J. M. Ball arrived this morning from Chicago and at once made complaint against the Stanley and Frank Davenport, charging them with burglarizing his residence on the lake shore road.
There are two charges not resting against the young men. They were previously held on the charge of the larceny of a watch and revolver from Engineer Taylor of the St. Joseph paper mill.

mas to the president-elect and his wife.
Among the distinguished visitors were

Withdrawal of the Com-

THE EVENING NEWS has received the following letter which explains itself.

Editor Evening News:—Please publish the following:

The St. Joseph law and order league has decided to withdraw its charges—twenty-three of them—against liquor dealers in that place. Benton Springs Etc.

Last week twenty-three cases which had been brought against liquor sellers had to be dropped for lack of evidence.
Benton Free Press.

On seeing the above, we think it calls upon us to give a true and correct statement of these cases. Last summer the saloon keepers were arrested in St. Joseph by the law and order league for violating the Sunday closing liquor law. They all appeared in the justice's court, waived examination, were bound over to the October court, under bonds of $100 each. It was stated at the beginning of this court that those cases were to be tried this term.

The complaining witnesses have waited anxiously and expected to be notified, and was ready to appear any day for the hearing of those cases, now we see in the paper and that is all we know about it as we have not heard a word from the court that the league had decided to withdraw its charges against the liquor dealers in that place.

We are very much surprised at these proceedings as we never will withdraw our charges against them, and if there is any law in the state of Michigan, and we believe there is, that we can bring those cases into court again, we will do it, for we have positive proof they are guilty of the charges.

LOSE THEIR JOBS.

Over One Hundred of the Boston Street Car Strikers Are Bounced.

Boston, Dec. 25.—The first official act of the West End management yesterday morning was to discharge 120 conductors and motormen of division 6 (Charlton). President Young, of the conductors, motormen and drivers union, headed the list. More than 100 discharges were also made on division 2 (Lenox street line).

President Young says the strike is off as far as the supreme council of the union is concerned. He admits that some of the men having already disregarded the action of the conference committee may ignore the ultimatum of the supreme council and inaugurate another strike. It is generally thought among the conductors and motormen that the action of the supreme council means that the management have until next Monday to sign an agreement submitted by the men recognizing them as a union instead of individuals. If the company refuses to do this another strike may be ordered.

Talk of Electing New Leaders. The more radical of the men say that heretofore the supreme council and the conference committee have failed to represent the sentiments of the union. One of the men said that if the company refused to recognize its conductors and motormen as a union, and the present Council did not order a strike, the resignation of the present members would be demanded and a new council representing the sentiments of the men would be installed. The conservative members, however, argue that a strike now would be the height of folly. In the event of a strike being ordered many of these men would refuse to go out. Yesterday and Thursday the recruiting office of the West End registered about 1,000 men who are supposed to be competent, besides receiving hundreds of applications by mail.

END OF THE CHRISTMAS STRIKE.

The speedy ending of the strike began to be anticipated Thursday afternoon when, in spite of the efforts of the union men, the employees of the South Boston line refused to join in the movement, and until early in the evening these cars were almost the only ones to be seen on the streets. By 4 o'clock, however, one or two cars of the Grove Hall line were seen and later a few desultory trips were made on the other lines. Meanwhile the executive council of the union was trying to convince the importunate strikers that the movement could not be expected to succeed when it had been begun in violation of the promise of the council to defer the strike until the directors of the road should have time to consider the agreement presented by the men. At last the argument of the company prevailed, and although the decision to declare the strike off is not satisfactory to many of the employees, the subject has been presented to them in such a light that they can see no other way of maintaining the honor of their committee, or of their union. As soon as the news of the committee's action became known preparations were made to resume operations on all lines. At the usual hour the men began to report, and while some changes were made, owing necessarily to the general withdrawal of their cars, at 10 o'clock, there was little to indicate that anything unusual had occurred.

The action of the company in discharging so many men is in the line of its ultimatum issued Thursday that those who did not return to work at a certain hour would be considered as having quit the company's service. True to this the company engaged such of its old employees as it desired, but declined the services of those prominently identified with the strike.

CECIL RHODES NOT A "DEAD DUCK."

Gives His Views of the Proper Policy for British in Africa.

Port Elizabeth, Cape Colony, Dec. 25.—At a banquet tendered to Cecil Rhodes here he made a speech in the course of which he declared that his public life was not ended, and that he would not give up his seat in parliament until he was turned out. He asserted that an average country can reach a part of Africa. Cape Colony, he said, must be the dominant power south of Central Africa. His idea was to assimilate the tariffs and not the peoples. This, he said, could be done in the north. It was not a question of race, but of unity. He urged his hearers to cultivate a closer union with other South African communities. He stated that when he was negotiating with the late Charles Stewart Bonwell, the latter had promised him that a clause should be inserted in the home rule bill which would permit representatives from the colonies to sit at Westminster.

Senator Voorhies' Secretary Dead. Washington, Dec. 25.—Chesler B. Faulkner, the private secretary of Senator Voorhies, of Indiana, who was knocked down Thursday night by a street car, died at Providence hospital yesterday afternoon. He never recovered from the shock consequent upon the amputation of his leg, which was a necessary result of the accident.

Weston on a Tramp Again.

New York, Dec. 25.—Edward Weston, the 35-year-old peddler, last night, began a twenty-four hours' walk in an effort to equal his record of 112 miles. His track led built around the ice in a big skating rink. At 2 o'clock this morning, four hours after the start, Weston had covered twenty miles.

Vice President Goes to St. Louis.

Washington, Dec. 25.—Vice President and Mrs. Stevenson and their daughter left here yesterday for St. Louis, where they will be present at the wedding of Miss Julia Scott, niece of Mrs. Stevenson, to Carl Vranam, of Baltimore, which event occurs Monday evening in St. Louis.

CHRISTMAS BLAZE.

Causes a Panic and Entails a Loss of Half a Million Dollars.

New York, Dec. 25.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed two big buildings on East Thirty-third street, partially destroyed the New York Polytechnic hospital and compelled the removal of its patients, drove two score of families from their homes in adjoining buildings, and did $500,000 damage. The structures which were destroyed were a five-story building at 211 and 213 East Thirty-third street, used partly as an office building, and a big six-story building at 215 and 217 used as a factory building. The first and second floors of 211 and 213 were used as offices and displayed rooms for the Kaldenberg Manufacturing company, which occupied with its factory the basement and first and second floors of the factory building. The company manufactures pipes and smokers' pipes. The third, fourth and fifth floors of 211 and 213 were occupied as offices by the Sebastian Sommer Piano company and the Gibson Piano company, allied concerns which had their factory in the upper floors of the factory building. The rear part of the upper floors of 211 and 213 was occupied by the suit factory of Adolph Plumer. It is believed that the fire started in the snuff factory.

That it Ruined the Sick People.

A part of the top floor of the factory building was occupied by the New England Car Spring company. The fire in East Thirty-third street had been burning from 6 o'clock until 7 o'clock before any real alarm was felt in the Polytechnic, though the patients knew there was a fire in the neighborhood. Suddenly the roof at the hospital, which is on Thirty-fourth street, burst into flames. The physicians in charge once decided to remove the fifty-eight patients and the Delaware hotel, nearby, was placed at the disposal of the Polytechnic officials. A squad of police men began the removal of the sick people, thirteen children being carried out without trouble. There was more trouble with the adult patients. Patients who should not have left their beds died the nurses and tried to escape. Some of the patients will suffer from the change.

Part in the Tenement House.

In the tenement house just west of the burning building lived twenty-four families. The mothers and fathers watched the firemen with indifference from their windows, while their children played with Christmas toys. Suddenly terror seized them as onlookers cried: "Run for your lives. The wall is going to fall on you." Mothers picked up their little ones and ran to the street. Others refused to leave. The police shoved the men and women down the stairs and picked the children from the floors, carrying them out. Most of them were in their night clothes, and each one was clinging to a toy. The roof of the factory building fell within an hour after the fire was discovered. The wall to the west tumbled upon the tenement house. The east wall went down on Schiller's hotel. The loss of half a million is well covered by insurance.

WIFE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Details of the Work of a Miscreant Who Used a Shotgun.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 25.—Edwin Scott, a teamster, shot his wife in the left shoulder and left side of the neck with a shotgun, inflicting wounds which may result in her death, and later blew the top of his head off with the same gun. He was arrested during the afternoon and on his return he asked her to spend Christmas with his relatives in Bureau. She refused because she had purchased a Christmas tree and presents for their only son, and he threatened to kill her. All through the evening he quarreled with her and finally the quarrel became so violent the boy ran out on the street in search of an officer, whom he found on the next corner. Just as the police man entered the house Scott fired the shot which took effect in the left shoulder and left side of the neck of his wife. Scott ran out the rear door pursued by the policeman and soon escaped. He went directly to the river bank, where he shot himself, though his body was not discovered until 8 o'clock next morning. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of suicide.

Took Peter Just Twenty-Seven Seconds.

New York, Dec. 25.—It just took twenty-seven seconds' time for Peter Maher, the Irish pugilist, to again demonstrate his superiority in ring tactics and hard hitting qualities over Steve O'Donnell, the Australian boxer, in the grand New York Athletic club at Coney island. Both men were in excellent condition and trained to the hour. During the round Maher knocked Steve down twice, the last time being a knockout.

Fatal Accident on a Trolley Line.

Allentown, Pa., Dec. 25.—Five persons were injured and one killed yesterday afternoon in East Allentown in a grade crossing accident. The injured are George Gresser, trolley car conductor; Mr. and Mrs. John Brink; Gehmann and Ed Werg. None of their injuries are serious.

"There is no paper published in America that so nearly approaches the true journalistic ideal as The CHICAGO RECORD."—From "Newspaperdom" (New York).

SEVERAL street lights occurred Christmas eve.

C. R. HOLLIS & Son report the largest holiday trade they have ever had.

Dr. C. N. Sowers drew the elegant banquet lamp at Dr. George M. Dell & Co.'s yesterday.

A LETTER from Frank Kelley tells of their arrival in Los Angeles, on the 18. They found calla lilies and roses in bloom, also good big oranges for 10 cents per dozen.

SKATING has been resumed on the river and along the Big Four railway. Yesterday large parties of young men and ladies took advantage of the opportunity to enjoy the ice.

THE hot air furnaces in the Hotel Higbee, which have been put in working order, are a great success. Mrs. Sowers, the lady who says that the temperature in the hotel now resembles that of the summer heat in Florida during her sojourn there last winter.

This freezing weather and mantle of snow Providence has kindly spread over the earth will have the effect of sending Colfax avenue residents to their knees in prayers of thankfulness for the deliverance these conditions provide from the nauseating odors that are carried on the breezes from the city dumping grounds.

BE sure and keep Friday evening, January 1, in mind, the old ladies' convention by the Universalist ladies at Conkey's hall. The two step will not be "It" with Kuziah Gough's seven step old time jenny dance and Aurora Bonanza Pick-bench will play on the melodion just beautiful in the exercises of the convention.

COLAMA Courier: The Courier suggests to the Methodist people that they restrict the ringing of their church bell to someone who can ring it, and not allow children and the inexperienced to continually startle our citizens by ringing fire alarms. There should be one way of ringing it to call people to church, and another to alarm them of a fire.
